Time goes by so fast and these days we just simply don't have enough of it to catch up with friends, shop and most importantly time to keep up with our appearance! Enter... stop™ A new tech kid on the beauty block!

What is it? A user friendly slinky home skincare hand held electronic device, that gently heats up skin from the inside thus promoting dermal activity and collagen fibres, allowing a fresher livelier skin to emerge.

Technical blurb: Scientific tests have proven that used on a regular basis - stop™ will help erase those enemy lines, iron out wrinkles and will have your skin looking younger, leaving others guessing your age of time! Just take a look at gorgeous 70's supermodel Marie Helvin, can you guess her age? How does she keep her skin looking so peachy? It's down to this new time bandit!

stop™ is the talk of the town, and is fast becoming a cult item. Make firm friends with the wonderful handbag must-have and see the visible difference in the texture, tone and clarity of your skin improve in no time at all! Ok, it may hold a hefty price tag... But you're worth it - right? stop™ £396.00 available exclusively at Selfridges and coming soon to Harvey Nichols in October.
